

WILLI'S

BIERSTUBE

WELCOME

Willi's is more than a well-known beer lounge. Every souvenir from seafaring and all kinds of personally collected memorabilia from Willi have found their new home here. Old photographs and Hanseatic art make the lounge as a special place.

WHO IS WILLI AND HOW DOES HE RELATE TO OUR BEER LOUNGE?

Willi (Wilhelm) Bartels, known as the King of St. Pauli, fell in love with the old sailors' home during a walk with his wife. It was clear to him that the building and its history must be preserved at all costs, because this charm does not exist a second of its kind. Even then, the neighbourhood legend was considered a respected property owner in Hamburg. He opened his core project, the former sailors' home, converted into the Hotel Hafen Hamburg, in 1979.

During his lifetime, Willi spent most of his time on his most favourite place in the beer lounge. For him, a place to meet, exchange ideas and still today an invitation to linger. If you are lucky, you can get Willi's regular seat when you visit. His place of honour is distinguished by a copper-coloured bust. A truly beautiful way to commemorate the King of St. Pauli.

OF HOTEL HAFEN HAMBURG

 13 DECEMBER 1914 † 05 NOVEMBER 2007

Next to the seating area there is a separate lounge with even more memorabilia. On the corner bench, a piece of the plank of the Rickmer Rickmers, built in 1896, has been integrated into the furniture. The former cargo sailing ship is now a museum ship and a popular landmark of the Hanseatic city of Hamburg.

And now we wish you a great time in our beer lounge. Cheers! - To the wonderful treasures that we are lucky to discover through his passion for collecting.
